Written with a lot of love.--Markus Zusak, best-selling author of The Book Thief Heart-wrenching action, fascinating historical details, and the joy of first love.--Constance Van Hoven, The Twelve Days of Christmas in Minnesota START READING NOW FREE WITH KINDLE UNLIMITED! Will Glover, who spends his days picking in a 19th century, Scottish coal pit, realizes the girl who used to throw rocks at his back now frustrates him in a whole new way. Lucie, with her luxurious, rose-scented hair and penetrating green eyes, torments Will's heart while they dance a reel to ring in the New Year. Will sees a happy future in her eyes they'll wed, and she'll bear him sons to work beside him down the mine. Will can't live without kissing her smiling lips at celebrations' end.

The Kissing Reel When Lucie skips toward Will with a hanky clutched in her hand, a sweetness breaks against his heart like a wave curling to the shore. Lucie flips her sassy head around, skips past, turns back, gives him a saucy look, and drops the hanky. Will scoops it up, races round the ring of jeering dancers, needing to catch Lucie and kiss her pink mouth more than breath. Click Look Inside the Book or send a free sample to your Kindle and read the fate of that kiss! (Enjoy 6 free chapters.) A Romantic Historical Novel God seems to smile on their young love, but sinister forces arise and threaten to destroy it. Lucie's father bargains with the Duke's rich factor, a depraved tyrant eager to bury his ailing wife and force Lucie to wed. Will's father with secret dreams of pioneering coal mines in the Americas binds the family to a stranger searching Ayrshire for the best colliers to fill his ship. Inspirational Historical Romance Will and Lucie run off to wed, but her father discovers them, tears Lucie from Will's arms, and beats him senseless. Will stumbles onward to escape his own father's betrayal. The stars shine down, watching over Will with a thousand tender eyes. He whispers his thanks to the Good Lord for lighting his way. Will says, No sooner has the prayer left my lips than I am filled with dread. Not fear of the night or the way. All round me is calm, but I cannot take a step forward. Mither, Faither, Jacob, Davieeven wee Andreware ranged across the road in front of me. Then they are gone. Vanished. And Im a lonely soul on a lonely road. Shame forces Will to turn his feet homeward. An unseen power compels each step. He leaves Scotland with a scrap of Lucies bonnie hankie wrapped around a wee bit of Ayrshire coal. Ill no go, Ill no go, Ill no go, his heart protests as Lucies frantic, waving figure disappears in the mist. He vows he will return for the only lass hell ever love. Pioneer Fiction Journey with Will as he struggles to survive seasickness, storms, starvation, an untamed mine in New Scotia, and a desperate night on a frozen canal bank in Pennsylvanias coal country.
