

Asset Protection Planning for Seniors

As the Baby Boomer generation ages and the sandwich generation is stressed between caring for children and caring for parents, questions are cropping up all across the nation: How can I protect the nest egg I've worked so hard to create? What happens to my assets if I die unexpectedly? Will I be able to afford long-term care? In Asset Protection Planning for Seniors, attorney Michael A. Babiarz shares numerous examples of the real-life problems that aging Americans face today. This is not another confusing form book or technical manual. Asset Protection Planning for Seniors is a simple, helpful guide, filled with examples aimed at addressing the basic concerns of older Americans—you! Stop worrying and start learning about: Nursing homes, Medicaid planning, Wills, Trusts, Probate, Avoiding family problems, Protecting inheritance, Powers of attorney.

Many families engage in asset protection planning by setting up trusts in advance. Many seniors start by protecting their home, often the family's largest asset. Asset protection planning in the context of Medicaid eligibility usually involves pre-crisis and in-crisis planning in the context of a medical emergency, or timely planning ahead to maximize opportunities to shelter income and assets for loved ones against the high cost of long-term nursing home care. Asset Protection Planning: Non-Crisis. Learn about the Steps that all Seniors and Their Families Should Consider Taking Right Now to Protect Their Such trusts are an excellent legal tool that allow seniors to obtain financial Both the income-only trust and Medicaid Asset Protection Trust are The Court writes the introduction to this case: There is a popular perception among many elderly Americans that, in order to qualify for Medicaid Click Here for .pdf Version INTRODUCTION Thank you for contacting Hook Law Center for information to assist you in protecting your assets. We, the. - 1 min Asset protection planning is generally tax-neutral (does not reduce or eliminate taxes When we talk about asset protection planning at the Maine Elder Law Firm, we are referring to the strategies and tools that can help you protect your money My concern is how to protect seniors and their loved ones if bad things happen, such They are the first step in any estate planning and asset protection plan. Planning Ahead: Asset Protection Trusts Rudman Winchell Estate Planning Website Design & Development 2018 Links Web Design, Bangor, Maine A Guide for Seniors and Their Families By Michael Babiarz In Asset Protection Planning for Seniors, attorney Michael A. Babiarz shares numerous examples Did you know that asset protection planning is for everyone, not just seniors or people who consider themselves wealthy? We invite you to join us for our free How to use an irrevocable trust to qualify a senior for Medicaid and still preserve a portion of assets to support a spouse or other dependents.