

Lizzie Dell is a brave young journalist who has set out to girdle around the globe in eighty days. During the first leg of her travels, she met and hopelessly fell for a charismatic older billionaire Andrew Hamilton. But she had to say goodbye to him, resolved to stay focused on her career. Now, as she arrives in Paris, she is determined to keep all thoughts of the dashing bachelor out of her mind, even as her body refuses to suppress its desires. Andrew conspires to meet with Lizzie in Paris, and the two find each other together again, their passion unbridled and rough with need. Once more, he insists on making Lizzie his, but she's too rebellious to settle. His only option is to wait for her to finish her project of circumnavigating the globe.
