

Angelic Works Concerning the Divine Love and Concerning the Divine Wisdom, First Int (Classic Reprint)

Man knows that there is such a thing as love, but does not know what love is. He knows that there is such a thing as love from common conversation as when it is said that such a person loves me, a king loves his subjects, and the subjects love the king, a husband loves his Wife, and a mother her children, and conversely; also such and such a person loves his country, his fellow-citizens, his neighbor; and likewise of things abstracted from person, that a person loves this or that. But although love is so universal in speech, scarcely any one knows what love is. When he meditates about it, because he cannot form for himself any idea of thought concerning it, he says either that it is not anything, or that it is merely something flowing in from sight, hearing, touch, and conversation, and affecting him in this manner. He is altogether ignorant of the fact that love is his very life ;not only the general life of his whole body, and the general life of all his thoughts, but also the life of all the particulars.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
