

Margaret of York, Simon Marmion, and The Visions of Tondal

Presented at a symposium held in 1990 to celebrate the Getty Museums acquisition of the only known illuminated copy of The Visions of Tondal, the essays in this volume are supplemented by a detailed appendix that provides basic information on all the books in Margaret of York's library. Twenty essays address the celebrated bibliographic activity of Margaret of York, the career of artist Simon Marmion, and The Visions of Tondal in relation to other manuscripts of illustrated visions from the Middle Ages. Contributors include Maryan Ainsworth, Wim Blockmans, Walter Cahn, Albert Derolez, Peter Dinzelsbacher, Rainald Grosshans, Sandra Hindman, Martin Lowry, Nigel Morgan, and Nigel Palmer.

Les Visions du chevalier Tondal is an illuminated manuscript from 1475, now at the Getty Museum, of a French version of the Visio Tnugdali, of which it is the only fully illuminated manuscript to survive. It has 20 miniatures by Simon Marmion and elaborate borders with CM for the initials of Margaret of York, Margaret of York, Simon Marmion, and the Visions of Tondal : papers delivered at a symposium organized by the Department of Manuscripts of the J.
