

THE EVIL BEHIND THE LAW, VOLUME I: WHAT LOVE CANNOT DO, PRAYER WILL DO

Mr. Fabrice is a Cameroonian poet, playwright and dramatist who has just arrived America, a nation that has witnessed the feminist movement and civil right activists and reforms. He has no papers, and so has to stay with one of his one-time classmate Miss Beatrice who picks him at the John F. Kennedy International Air Port, New York. With the passage of time, Mr. Fabrice will discover how Miss Beatrice has been influenced and corrupted by the new feminist culture in America. His life will later turn to be a story of tragedy because his friend under the pressure and lust for money would want to influence Mr. Fabrice to marry her best friend Miss Asunder who is an American born citizen to his detriment. Mr. Fabrice later falls in love with a Cameroonian woman, Miss Angel who even though living under the feminist law system in America has not been influenced in anywhere. His life is full of thorns as Miss Asunder, using the feminist law and her position as a native born American fights his marriage engagement with Miss Angel. Every attempt of hers to break the relationship fails, and on the eve of Mr. Fabrice's wedding with Miss Angel, Miss Asunder invites him to her house, and threatens him to either have a sexual affair with her for her to be pregnant, or she calls the police against Mr. Fabrice for sexual harassment. Mr. Fabrice stands his ground, Miss Asunder calls the police against Mr. Fabrice, he is arrested and his trial is on the same day of his wedding with Miss Angel. Miss Angel presents herself in court on the day of the trial with her wedding gown, and after the trial, Mr. Fabrice is declared not guilty and so the judge decides to marry Mr. Fabrice and Miss Angel in front of Miss Asunder.
