

Tempting Bella (Accidental Peers Book 2)

Mirabella can hardly remember the man she married as a girl to settle a gaming debt between their fathers. And its just as well. She feels nothing but contempt for the man who wed her for her fortune and promptly forgot she existed. The ton may call him The Saint but Bella knows better. Forced to marry as a teen to rescue his family from certain ruin, Sebastian has been apart from his child bride since their wedding day. When he encounters an enchanting impish beauty at the opera, hes is thrilled to find she is none other than his long-ago bride and he is more than ready to make her his wife in truth. Too bad the beguiling beauty has no intention of coming meekly to the marriage bed.
